daughter, Eva, and Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Riedinger and daughter, Loretta, attended the Rubright reunion August 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Riedinger, in Hartsville. One hundred and five came in time for dinner. Exercises, consisting of declamations by Miss Arlene Rubright, of East Gilead, Mich.; Harold Crumm, of Lordstown, and Louise Agne, of Kent, and a speech by Henry Denny, Mr. Denny told of his meeting with John Dukendorf, an old schoolmate who he had not seen for fifty years. Leon Rubright, of Canton; Dr. M. M. Rubright and Rev. J. D. Neff, of Hartsville; John and Alvin Hilbish, of Akron; Ivan Schrop, of East Akron, who has become a member of the Rubright family during the last year, and several others made short talks. Six names have been added to the Rubright family record. Three by marriage and three by birth. No death since the last reunion, August, 1907. As a number of relatives from a distance were present for the first time at these reunions, the historian, M. M. Riedinger, read the biography of their forefathers. William Rubright, first father of the eldest Rubright family living at present, (William and Abraham Rubright, of Hartsville), was born in Lynn township, Northampton county, Pa., May 8, 1808, came to Mahoning county, 1828, and was of a family of five children, four daughters and one son. William Rubright, first, was the son of Henry and Mollie Rubright. Henry was born in Lynn township, Northampton county, Pa., in the year 1785, was united in the year 1805, who was born in 1785 in Lehigh county, Pa. To this union was born five children, William, first; Lydia, later married to Mr. Crum; Betsy, married to Mr. Lynn; and Abbie, married to Mr. Dukendorf. They were all born in Lynn township, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rubright emigrated to Mahoning county, overland by wagon in 1828. Henry died in the year 1872 in Lordstown, Trumbull county, at the age of 86 years, 2 months. His wife died at the age of 85 years. William Rubright, first, was married to Marie Miller, who was born in Hinton township, Lehigh county, Pa. She was a daughter of Isaac and Catherine Miller, was born April 10, 1812; emigrated with her parents to Canfield in 1825. They came overland by wagon, a distance of about 300 miles. At Canfield, William, first, and Marie were married November 29, 1832. In 1837 they came to Stark county, and bought a farm on the east side of Congress Lake, containing fifty acres, known as the Smith farm. On this farm was a small log house, with two windows and four panes to a window, 6x8 inches per pane. Some time after he bought 30 acres adjoining this farm from Mr. Hoffman. A few years later he built a two-story log house, which he lived in until the year 1867. Father Rubright sold this farm and bought a farm of 124 acres now known as the Pontius farm, on the Hartsville and Rootstown road, owned by Mr. Spiechell. In the year 1870 father and mother Rubright retired from farm work, giving it in charge of their son, William, Jr.

On November 29, 1882, father and mother Rubright, both well and hearty, celebrated their golden wedding with all living children present. This union was blessed with 12 children, namely: Henry, living in Sturgis, Mich.; Isaac, died in 1890, at the age of 44 years; Samuel, Blonsen, Mich.; Elizabeth, later married John Keller, now living in Hartsville, O.; William, Hartsville, O.; Mary Wilson, New Baltimore; Lydia Riedinger, Randolph; Rebecca Lilly, deceased; Abbie, deceased; Susanna Keller, Randolph; Abraham, Hartsville.

Father Rubright died on February 6, 1889, aged 80 years, 9 months, and was buried in the church cemetery in Hartsville. Mother Rubright died June 16, 1901, aged 88 years, 2 months, 6 days.

At present there are living nine children, 40 grandchildren, 71 great-grandchildren and three great great grandchildren.

It was decided to hold the next reunion at Springfield Lake, with Mr. and Mrs. John Keller, the first Saturday in August, 1909. Officers for the ensuing year were elected: President, John Keller, Randolph, O.; vice president, Aaron Rubright, Canton, O.; secretary, Mervin Rubright, Hartsville; treasurer, William Rubright, Hartsville; historian, Lloyd Rubright, Hartsville. After which 125 returned to the refilled tables in Goetz & Keller's hall.

The Marlboro Grange met, Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. George Reldinger, of Marlboro. A good attendance and interesting program was the result. That's not all the good things present either—good things at dinner galore. Mrs. R. is the pioneer of this section of the new hay box cooking and she served as fine a meal at the noon hour as one could wish. You know how its done. She partly cooks the dinner while cooking breakfast, and then packs it away in the hay box in the cook vessels where the heat retained finishes the process. A good literary program was a feature. George Reldinger, lecturer pro tem, in the absence of Charles Hamilton. William Nash discoursed on the advantages of picnics and open meetings for the Grange. A piano solo, and J. O. Wilhelm told why he joined the Grange. The committee on music from Pomona Grange at Charley Hamilton's, in September, consisting of Mrs. L. G. Kelley, Mrs. George Reldinger and S. C. Under, opened, and a motion by John Clapp, saddle to hire the Rockhill orchestra for that occasion prevailed. S. C. Under predicted what would come to pass "When Every Man is a Granger." Several general questions were answered by Charley Johnston, David and Mrs. Yarian and others. The next meeting will be held the first Wednesday in September at the home of Harry Reeder. Rev. and Mrs. William Pennock were appointed, by Worthy Master Grant Shrop, as a by vote of the Grange, condemning the false reports and other methods of the so-called Personal Liberty League to the voters of Ohio.

A meeting of patrons of the Bell telephone system was held Wednesday evening, at the home of C. B. Diney, Marlboro. The object is to resist collection of rental for some four weeks when the phones were out of commission.

KENT MAN DROWNED AT LAKE BRADY

Kent, O., Aug. 9.—While bathing at Lake Brady today Peter Piepochinski, a Pole, 36 years of age, was drowned. The man was unable to swim, and ventured out until he lost his footing on the bottom. After vain attempts to get to shore he sank exhausted. Other bathers watched the man but none would venture to his assistance.

Not Burning Up Money.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 9.—Not more than $500 will be spent by the local committee upon the Bryan notification ceremonies Aug. 12. Mayor F. W. Brown, as chairman of the committee, has raised that amount and the expenses will be kept within that limit. The parade on Aug. 12 will consist of two bands, a platoon of police and a company of mounted Democrats as escort for Messrs. Bryan and Kern and the notification committee. There will be no marching clubs in the parade.
